All Saints Candle Memorial:

At the 5:30PM Mass on Wednesday, November 1, we will have our annual procession of candles in memory of those parishioners or family members who have died since November 1, 2016. Please call in the names of those loved ones who should be particularly remembered this year no later than October 30th. Family or friends will present the candles after the homily and they may remain on the altar through November 2nd (All Souls' Day). If you wish, you may pick up your candle after the All Saints' Day Mass or leave them on the altar to be picked up at a later time. Candles that have not been picked up by November 2nd will be kept in the church office for a short time and then be used in the church as needed. Call the church office to reserve your candle.
