Good Shepherd Sunday!

Follow His Voice

Dear Friends:

One of the most comforting—and most challenging—truths of our faith is this: Jesus knows you personally. Not in a vague way. Not as part of a crowd. Not as a number on a parish roll. He knows you by name.

In the Gospel, Jesus describes Himself as the Good Shepherd, an image we know and love here at JGS. He says that the sheep hear His voice, recognize it, and follow Him. That image is beautiful—but it is also very personal. A shepherd in the ancient world did not drive sheep from behind. He walked ahead of them. He called them. And they followed because they trusted him.

That is how Jesus leads us. He does not force. He does not push. He calls.

And the great question for each of us is simple: Do I recognize His voice?

We live in a noisy world. Phones buzz. News alerts flash. Opinions multiply. Schedules fill up. It can be hard to hear anything clearly, especially the quiet voice of the Lord speaking in our hearts. Yet His voice is there.

You may hear it in a moment of conscience when you know you should apologize. You may hear it when you feel the urge to help someone in need. You may hear it when you sense a gentle invitation to pray, to come back to Mass, or to spend a few minutes in silence before the Blessed Sacrament. That is not coincidence. That is the Shepherd calling your name. And here is the beautiful part: you are not replaceable to Him.

The world often treats people as interchangeable. If one person leaves, another takes their place. But not with Jesus. There is something only you can give Him: your love, your faith, your trust. No one else can do that for you. He calls each of us by name because each of us matters.

Here at Jesus the Good Shepherd Parish, we see this every day. We see it in parents bringing their children to Mass. We see it in volunteers serving at Fish Fries, teaching in classrooms, visiting the sick, or quietly praying in the pews. Each person responding to the Lord's voice helps build up the whole community. That is how the Church grows, not by pressure, but by love.

So this week, take a moment to listen. Step into the church. Sit quietly. Speak to the Lord from your heart. It does not take long. Sometimes just a few simple words are enough: "Jesus, I trust in You."

Because the Good Shepherd is still calling. And He is calling you.

Fr. Peter

Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Church

WELCOME TO OUR NEW DRE!

I am very happy to share some joyful news with our parish family. After a thoughtful search and much prayer, I am pleased to announce that Dr. Mallory Benedetto will be joining the staff at Jesus the Good Shepherd as our new Director of Religious Education. I am deeply grateful for her willingness to serve in this important role, helping to guide and strengthen the faith formation of our children, youth, and adults.

Many of you already know Mallory. She is one of our own. She received the sacraments of Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation here at Jesus the Good Shepherd. She attended both JGS and St. Frederick schools, and as an adult she has continued to give generously of her time and talents—serving as a lector, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Director of an ACTS retreat, and sponsor in the OCIA program. Her roots in this parish run deep, and her love for this community is genuine.

Mallory also brings to this ministry a strong background in education and leadership. Most recently, she served as an Assistant Professor at the University of Louisiana at Monroe. She holds a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science from Tulane University, as well as a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Louisiana Tech University. Her professional experience, combined with her faith and commitment to the Church, will be a great blessing to our parish.

In this new role, Mallory will help us continue building a vibrant and faithful program of religious education—one that supports our catechists, partners with parents, and forms disciples who know, love, and follow Jesus Christ. She is eager to collaborate with our families and ministries so that together we can foster a lifelong love for the Catholic faith and a deeper encounter with the Lord through Scripture, prayer, and community.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Mallory Benedetto to our parish staff. I ask that you keep her in your prayers as she begins this new chapter of service among us, and that you offer her the same support and encouragement that make our parish such a strong and faith-filled community.
